NEGRO FIEND ATTACKS YOUNG SCHOOL GIRL.

Miss Jennie Kiser, of Kiser, is Attacked By Negro, While In Buggy.

THE VICTIM NEARLY PROSTRATED.

Negro Spirited To Lexington To Avoid Chances of Mob Violence.

Charged with attempted criminal assault upon the person of Miss Jennie Kiser, seventeen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kiser, of Kiser, this county, Wm. Gamby, a negro, was arrested near Kiser, Friday afternoon by Sheriff W. F. Talbot, Deputy Sheriff J. O. Marshall and Jailer Jos. Farris, after a mob of angry citizens of the community had about decided to take the law into their own hands.

When the news of the assault reached Sheriff Talbot, George Kiser, Wm. B. Ardery and Thomas Allen started to the scene in Mr. Allen's automobile, and Deputy Sheriff Marshall and Jailer Joseph Farris also went in another machine.

The first clue was gained at the home of Henry Ingels, on the Peacock pike, Mrs. Ingels saying that she noticed a buggy pass with a negro man hanging on behind. She gave a full description of the man as being yellow in color, and dressed in blue or black pants and yellow shirt with his coat on his arm.

As the officers proceeded they soon found that the whole neighborhood was aroused, and armed men were hunting in every direction for the negro criminal. The negro remained on the back of Miss Kiser's buggy until a secluded place in the road was reached, a steep cliff on the creek bank, with trees and undergrowth, when he sprang from his place behind the buggy and dragged the unsuspecting girl from her seat into the bushes. Her screams, however, brought assistance and the negro was frightened away.

The news spread rapidly, and finally a negro answering the description was brought to bay by Mr. George Current, who held him at the point of a shotgun until the arrival of the Sheriff.

It was with difficulty that a lynching then and there was averted, but luckily an automobile happened along just at the time the Sheriff having abandoned his machine to hunt for the negro on horseback, and the prisoner was rushed to Paris, where he was landed in jail. Later, he was taken to Lexington for safe keeping.

The young lady, who is a student in the Paris City Schools, and who was returning home alone in her buggy, is a member of a well-known and prominent family, and is popular with all who knew her. It is said she is prostrated from the shock of her terrible experience.

Fearing mob violence from the enraged citizens of Bourbon County, Sheriff W. F. Talbot took Gamby to Lexington, Saturday evening in an auto for safe keeping.

Gamby stoutly denies any connection with the crime, but the officers who arrested him feel pretty certain from the descriptions they had of the suspect before his arrest, that he is the guilty party.

The negro was fully and positively identified by Miss Kiser before the arrival of the officers.

Gamby, when seen at the Fayette county jail, said he was arrested about three o'clock, three miles from Paris. He stoutly denied having committed the crime that he is charged with, saying he thought he was being arrested in connection with some trouble with a colored woman and that his arrest had been caused by an uncle of the woman with whom he attended a festival at Paris the preceding night.

The negro gave his home as Cambridge, Md., and said he had been around Paris for four or five years, off and on, and that during this time he had worked as a section hand on the railroad. He gave the names of James Hubbard, Patrick Peagan and Patrick Kearns as men for whom he had worked during this time.

He is a mulatto, about 5 feet 6 inches tall and weighs about 125 or 130 pounds.

A man answering the description given of Gamby, appeared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Swift Champ, on Pleasant street, Friday morning and boldly entering the kitchen made himself at home, and retreated at his leisure and no one was at home but the cook.

Gamby will probably not be brought back here until the feeling against him has subsided.

It is the general opinion that the negro who attacked Miss Kiser is the same one who attacked Miss Oliver.

$60,000 FIRE AT CORINTH.

Business Portion of Town

Gutted By Disastrous

Fire Monday.

Fire of unknown origin early yesterday morning swept the larger part of Corinth, Grant County, Ky., a town of 800 population, on the Q. & C. railroad, destroying fifteen business houses and seven residences, including the postoffice and Childers Hotel, the principal hostelry in the town, and entailing a loss of $60,000. Only about one-fourth of the buildings were insured.

Sadieville, a nearby town, was appealed to for assistance and sent fifty men to help fight the conflagration, which was not gotten under control until about daylight.

The fire, which started about one o'clock, originated in the grocery store of G. W. Epperson, and spread in both directions, north and south on Main street, sweeping everything before it.

STILL "PEACE-ING."

While the delegates of the United States to the Niagara Falls conference declined to discuss their attitude as to the admission of Carranza delegates it was emphasized in Washington that no protocol should be signed until agents of the Constitutionalists had been given an opportunity to participate in the deliberations. It was stated that the cargo of the Ypiranga, discharged at Puerto Mexico, consisted of 15,000,000 rounds of ammunition, 250 machine guns and other war material. The next step in the Ypiranga incident, it is stated, may be the filing of a claim against the United States for causing delay in delivering the cargo.

BECKHAM WILL OPEN LOUISVILLE HEADQUARTERS.

With Gen. Percy Haley at the helm, former Gov. Beckham opened his headquarters in the Seelbach Hotel, in Louisville yesterday morning. The headquarters are in charge of Gen. Haley, with Robert G. Phillips to assist.

Beckham has not determined yet whether he will make the race for the short term along with the long term for the Senate.

Gov. Beckham spoke at Motteville and Burnside Monday. Before leaving Frankfort Sunday the question was put to him direct, "Are you going to make the race for the Democratic nomination for the short term?" and he said, "I haven't made up my mind yet."

McCREARY DECIDES TO APPOINT CAMDEN.

Governor McCreary Saturday announced that Johnson N. Camden, of Versailles, will be appointed United States Senator to fill the vacancy created by the death of Senator W. O. Bradley.

The appointment was made at the request of many persons in the State and upon the endorsement of the Democratic Clubs of Lexington, Versailles, Fayette, Woodford and other counties.

The appointment will not be made until June 15. Mr. Camden will accept.

JUNE COURT DAY A VERY DULL ONE.

June court day was a very dull one, as far as business was concerned, and there was but a small crowd in attendance. M. J. Murphy Co. reported a slow market, with 50 cattle at their pens, all sold. W. A. Thompson purchased fifteen from Mattox at $59 per head, the remainder bringing $54; 2 milch cows sold at $50 @ $75, horses brought $40 to $90. A few mules on the market, but sales slow.

APPOINTED ADMINISTRATOR OF BROTHERS' ESTATE.

County Judge McMillan yesterday appointed Ed. Blake, of near Centerville, administrator of the estate of his brother, John Blake, who died several weeks ago. Mr. Blake qualified with Mr. S. E. Bedford and Judge E. B. January as sureties. The estate consists of a fine farm and personal property near Centreville.

CANTRILL'S PETITION FILED.

FRANKFORT KY., May 29.—The petition of Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill seeking the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district, was filed to-day by Postmaster Russ Hughes, of this city. It was signed by Pruitt Graham and Bowen Henry, both farmers.

near Riddles Mills, some weeks ago, and Mrs. Isgrig, in East Paris, a short time ago. The victims in all three cases were choked and bruised about the throat and neck, all in the same manner. The descriptions given in each case closely fits that of Gamby.

JOY RIDE TERMINATES IN DEATH OF ONE.

Elwood Wallen, of Paris, Is Killed in Automobile Accident Sunday.

MACHINE TURNED TURTLE.

Scott Woodford, of Paris, and J. W. Chowning, of Lair, Injured.

As the result of the automobile in which they were riding, turning turtle, on the Nicholasville pike, eight miles from Lexington, early Sunday morning, Elwood Wallen, of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wallen, was killed, and Scott Woodford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Woodford, of the county, and J. W. Chowning, of Lair, were painfully injured.

The young men left Paris after midnight Saturday night, saying they were going to Nicholasville on a joyride. It is not known how long they remained there, but they had started home and when about five miles from the town, the machine, which was being driven by Mr. Chowning, the owner, suddenly skidded and dropped off a slight embankment, turned over, righted itself and turned again, finally running at terrific force into a fence post, hurling the occupants out.

The Lexington police department was notified Sunday morning about 7 o'clock that three men had been badly injured four miles from Nicholasville or eight miles from Lexington and aid was asked for. Lieutenant Newton Harkins and Patrolman Wm. Vaughn, accompanied by Dr. A. H. Barkley, left for the scene of the accident in the Public Safety. When the Lexington men arrived it was found that Mr. Wallen was already dead. Mr. Chowning was unconscious and Mr. Woodford was walking about, although badly injured about the head.

The Public Safety was followed to the scene of the accident by a truck from the Blue Grass Auto Company, and when the truck arrived the dead body of Mr. Wallen was placed upon it and taken to Nicholasville, as the accident occurred in Jessamine county and would have to be investigated officially by the coroner of that county, and later to his home in Paris.

Messrs. Woodford and Chowning were placed in the Public Safety, and a few moments later the return trip to Lexington was begun. Almost before the machine could be gotten under way, Mr. Woodford became unconscious, but when he reached the Good Samaritan Hospital he regained consciousness.

Woodford is slightly bruised about the head, but is not seriously injured. He was the only one who was conscious when assistance reached them.

The police infer that the car in which Messrs. Woodford, Chowning and Wallen were riding was going better than 75 miles an hour, that speed being necessary—according to the police—to have caused it to turn turtle and skid on a pike as level as the Nicholasville road is at the point where the accident occurred. After having turned turtle the car is said to have righted itself and run about 100 yards from the place of the accident, when, it swerved to the right and ran into a fence, where it lodged, badly damaged. The trouble is said to have developed in the steering gear.

Young Wallen's body was brought home Sunday afternoon on the 4:30 interurban car and taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wallen, on Cypress street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets. He sustained heavy bruises about the head, and his body was terribly lacerated, a large artery in the thigh was severed and it is thought he bled to death. He was the only child of his parents, who are prostrated over his awful fate. They have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community. Mr. Wallen went to the scene of the accident Sunday morning with Dr. D. S. Henry and returned with the body, accompanied by Mr. Taylor, the undertaker.

The funeral services will be conducted at the residence, on Cypress street, this morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. O. R. Mangum. Burial in Paris Cemetery.

The pall-bearers are: Earl Curtis, James Henry, Wm. Kiser, Wm. Cooper, Thomas Link, Merritt Slicer.

WANT YOUTSEY PARDONED

Petitions for the pardon of Henry E. Youtsey, now under sentence of life imprisonment in the State penitentiary for complicity in the assassination of William Goebel, and who has served thirteen years in the Frankfort prison, are being circulated through Kentucky by Mrs. Kate E. HOW CHILDREN GROW

Children grow by nourishment—not overloaded stomachs or rich foods but qualities that are readily converted into life-sustaining blood; too often their digestive powers cannot procure these qualities from ordinary foods which results in weakness, dullness and sickness.

If your children are under-size, under-weight, catch cold easily, are languid, backward, pale or frail, give them Scott's Emulsion which is pure medicinal nourishment. It sharpens the appetite, builds healthy flesh, firm muscles and active brains. Scott's is growing-food for children. Refuse alcoholic substitutes.

ENTIRE MAYO FORTUNE
LEFT TO WIDOW.

Information has been given out that the will of the late John C. Mayo will be probated at Paintsville, June 1. The entire fortune was willed to the widow, who will endeavor to carry out the plans Mr. Mayo had for further development in Eastern Kentucky. John E. Buckingham, Cashier of the Paintsville National Bank, who has been closely associated with Mr. Mayo in his business dealings, is asked in the will to act in an advisory capacity and give all possible assistance to Mrs. Mayo in the management of the large estate.

It is not now believed the will will throw much light on the size of the fortune. It is said Mr. Mayo carried $275,000 insurance at the time of his death, having dropped $125,000 before maturity several years ago.

US A FEW BRICKS.

Jim Allen, the versatile editor of the Cynthiana Democrat, in his "Pert and Pertinent" column, takes the following cracks at Paris:

"Cynthiana calls her commuter train to Paris the 'Booze Special.' Mayfield has a dinkey called 'Whiskey Dick.'

"At Paris it seems they let George do it.

"The consensus of opinion is that George Alexander will make a mighty poor man.

"Bankers in other towns are said not to have been surprised at the failure of the Alexander bank at Paris. With a law in force guaranteeing the safety of deposits, the bankers who observed what was doing at Paris very likely would have stopped it."

UNITED STATES PAYS
SENATORS' BURIAL EXPENSES

In accordance with the law and custom, the United States defrays all expenses of burial of one of its Senators. Last week the body of Senator Bradley was brought from Washington on a special train of three coaches. All expenses were defrayed by the Senate, including the sum of $7,500 which goes to the widow, this being one year's salary of the dead Senator.

MAYO'S BROTHER IS

ROOSEVELT WILL
WIELD BIG STICK.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt will take an active part in the State campaign of the Progressive party this year, according to statements he made in conferences with Progressive leaders at Washington, Wednesday. To press representatives he said:

"I came to Washington to speak,
but secondly I want to see Progressive Senators and Representatives because I feel that a peculiar debt of obligation is owing to them for what they have done and the way in which they have borne themselves."

"I shall be taking my part in the campaign this year. I will have to explain that it is impossible to be in more than forty or fifty different places at the same time. I have been asked by Mr. Lewis and Mr. Pinchot to open the campaign in Pittsburg on June 30, which I am going to do."

"I have written to Governor Hiram Johnson that it is my desire to speak in California. Of course, I will go out there."

Into nine hours former President
Roosevelt crowded a speech on his South American expedition, a call on President Wilson, a political conference of first importance with the Progressives in congress, a visit to the Smithsonian Institute to see the trophies from his African hunt of four years ago, a meeting with a few members of the diplomatic corps and a dinner with old friends here.

TOBACCO MEN

HAVE BIG STOCKS.

Stocks of leaf tobacco in the hands of manufacturers are larger at the present time than at the same time a year ago, is shown by the report of the Department of Commerce which has just been issued by Director Harris. The present stocks are heavier in all departments, chewing, smoking and cigar leaf being represented. The largest stocks are from the dark Burley districts of Western Kentucky and the light districts of the eastern half of the State are also well represented. Cigarette and stogie stocks constitute a large proportion of the reserve which is held by manufacturers, although there is a very heavy stock of chewing and cigar leaf, all of which is discounted by the fact that there are small stocks in the warehouses.

CAUTIOUS

Darkey Didn't Want to Get in Bad With the Government.

Last Saturday was tough on the roosters in Mercer county. About 550 chanticleers were brought to Harrodsburg and were bought by the Ice & Produce Company, the managers paying the same price for them as for a fine fat pullet. One man who saw the bunch said that they seemed to realize that their doom was sealed, for they were the most dejected looking lot he ever saw. A funny thing happened in connection with this wholesale rooster delivery. A colored "geminian" brought in seven or eight big roosters and when the managers asked if that was all he had, he answered, "Yes, boss, dis am the very last solitary one we owned." The next day he was back bright and early, very much worried, and approached the manager of the plant. "Boss," he pleaded, "please sal, rub my name off dat book. I done made a mistake. De ole lady and me wuz talkin' dis thing over las' night and we don't want ter git in no trouble wid the guv'mint. Ef de guv'mint orders everybody ter sell all de roosters de wows, we don't want ter be 'rested for misrepresentin' things. I didn't bring all de roosters we had. We's got seven or eight more. Please rub my name off, boss, an' put it down straight. De ole lady an' me has decided we don't want ter monkey wid the guv'mint." The old couple had mistaken the fact that the government station had recommended poultry raisers to get rid of the cockerels in their flock for an order compelling them to sell them, and fear of being arrested for a false statement had driven the old darky back to town to set himself straight with the Produce Company. — [Harrodsburg Herald.]

SIMPLEST WAY TO KILL FLY.

The London Lancet, the leading medical journal of the world, says that the best and simplest fly killer is a weak solution of formaldehyde in water (two teaspoonsfuls to the pint.) Place it in plates or saucers throughout the house. Ten cents worth of this liquid will last an ordinary family all summer. It has no offensive odor, is fatal to disease organisms and is practically non-poisonous except to insects.

THE HOUSE FLY ENGINE OF DESTRUCTION.

The house fly costs the United States $350,000,000 a year. In other words, he deprives the American people annually of 170,000,000 years of human life, or 4,000,000 lives of the present average length.

GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN
Against Promoters of Get-Rich Quick Schemes.

A report of the Chief Inspector of the Postoffice Department gave the astonishing information that the get-rich-quick promoters who had been put out of business in one year had separated their "clients" from seventy-seven million dollars, a large proportion of which came from the purses of credulous women. Here's how some of the traps for the unwary are laid, as told by Mary Hamilton Talbot in the Ladies' World. "Why," so the alluring advertisements read, "scrimp and save for your life time for four per cent. when you can so easily double your principal in a year's time by judicious investments?" To the innocent one this looks very attractive and probable, but she does not stop to think that there are millions of dollars lying idle in the banks of this country, whose owners would snap at a chance to invest them and have them double in a year's time. If the investments thus advertised were really safe you would certainly never hear of them. Their management would certainly send out agents when the man next door has a million dollars to invest at the rate they are promising you.

The following is merely one of a thousand experiences. A few days ago the husband of my friend died, leaving her with little property, but with a life insurance policy for $4,000. To live in Washington on the proceeds of that was a task, and she knew it.

Then came the devil and tempted her. He came in the guise of a newspaper advertisement of a wonderful and guilt-edged investment. It would double her legacy in a year. More than that, it would certainly pay dividends beyond her needs. Haste, said the messenger of gold, was imperative. She did as directed. She sent every cent that she had except enough to carry her for a month or so, until the golden stream should begin to flow. She received finely embossed certificates in return.

In calm assurance she waited. She renewed her rental in a home that she had thought of giving up. Then, one morning she read disaster in the newspaper. In lurid headlines, the tale that meant her undoing was spread abroad to the public. The people from whom she had bought her stock had been raided by the United States Government. The stock itself was named as an out-and-out swindle. Her money, she read, would never come back.

We hear on all sides the same stories, with variations, told over and over again. Ten years ago an old white-haired woman in my own family circle was persuaded to put her money in mining stock, and each year since she has been looking for the dividends promised; instead she regularly gets literature like this: "We want you to read this telegram; it contains the best news we have yet received. It tells of the great excitement out there over the discovery of another big vein on the property adjoining ours on the east. Our mine manager proves that the same series of veins cross our property." Then follows a description of the work which is going on. Attached to the letter is a type written copy of the message from the mine manager to the promoter on the form used for night letter telegrams of the telegraph company. It is all so skillfully gotten up that it creates the impression of absolute genuineness, and how often have I heard, after its receipt: "Well, I guess you can't call that a fake any longer, when the mine is in actual operation and all those splendid veins in sight." Maybe it is no fake, but it has fooled thousands of women into investing their money and has produced no tangible results.

The widespread desire to "make some money on the side," as well as the attractions of "being a writer," have been played upon in the following advertisement, which can be seen in hundreds of papers:

"Learn short-story writing by mail in two weeks. Entire course only ten dollars. You can earn fame and fortune! Conan Doyle and Rudyard Kipling get as high as $1,000 a story. Address —"

There are in the interior sections of the country, and in the cities as well, any number of persons who believe that story-writing is an accomplishment that may be attained by following a few rules, much after the manner that obtains in developing the muscles or making geraniums grow in the back yard. The advertisement reader probably has succeeded in accomplishing the two latter, and can see no reason why a person cannot just as easily "make good" at short-story writing. While it is true that these tutors-by-mail send a booklet containing a collection of hackneyed "rules for short-story writing," it is also true that ideas, originality or inspiration, all of which are needed for success in this work, never enter into the question. "It's the way it looks on the outside, not the idea of what is in it, which counts," is the logic of these schemers. Aspirants for money and fame rush blindly into the net which is laid for them; waste time and effort and money in pursuing something for which they have not the slightest aptitude and of which they have not the slightest knowledge, and are made to lose faith not only in the world, but, worse still, in themselves. A magazine editor recently revealed to me the pathetic side of these short-story-writing-taught-by-mail institutions by showing me a letter. It read as follows: "I have just taken a course of short-story-writing by mail, and as they tell me I am their most brilliant scholar, I hope you will take the story I am sending you." What a story! It was utterly devoid of any sort of merit, and of course had to be returned to her. My friend told me they get in his office hundreds of just such letters and stories.

Thousands of women are caught by the advertisement:

"Write the words of a song and we will write the music and present it to one of the big New York publishing houses. A hit will make you rich."

I found this to be the case of a woman I knew who worked for her

The harbor of Hamburg has been equipped with floating dry docks of two types which permit them to raise from the water vessels longer than the docks themselves.

daily bread at a meager salary. She worked diligently at her "song-poem" and sent it to the writer of the advertisement. A few days later she was delighted to receive a courteous letter saying the poem had been accepted. The letter contained: "Your song contains that element of human interest that usually appeals to and holds the ear of the music-loving public. I am confident that with a suitable setting it would be accepted by a publishing house in this city." And all this was to cost her only ten dollars. It looked as if the setting was considered suitable, for in a short time a music-publishing firm wrote her and said her song set to music had been recommended to them for publication by the first-named company, which they would do for forty dollars. The letter empathized the wonderful results they had obtained for other "artists;" also the vast sum they spent in advertising and, too, they made great feature of their music parlor, where musicians were invited to play over the songs brought out by them. Greatly pleased that she was on the verge of becoming rich and famous as a song writer, she agreed to the proposition and sent the money. In return for the fifty dollars expended she received as her only "royalty" a payment of fifty cents in stamps.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS BUGGY PAINT

was originally made for re-painting and re-finishing old buggies, and combines all the toughness, durability, and strength of color necessary to withstand the hard wear a buggy gets. There's no other paint for the purpose as good and economical.

It's splendid wearing qualities make it also adaptable for painting porch and lawn furniture and all articles subject to outside exposure where a strong, gloss finish is wanted.

DEATHS

The nineteen-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Robertson died of whooping-cough at their home near Jacksonville, this county, Saturday, and was buried in the Jacksonville Cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

STOCK AND FARM NOTES.

Wm. Whaley, of Paris, purchased several fancy bunches of cattle at Winchester, paying in the neighborhood of $7 per hundred pounds.

M. H. Vice, of Montgomery county, Ky., sold last week to J. L. Robins, of Bourbon county, twenty-three lambs, averaging about 70 pounds. The price was 7½ cents a pound.

The show mare, Bourbon Queen, foaled on May 22, a black colt by Pat Washington, owned by W. E. Stilwell, of Chilisburg, Ky., with star, snip and two white hind feet that looks like a winner.

R. J. Burton, of Bryantsville, Ky., recently purchased six head of yearling mules from Squire James Bourne at $90 per head. Four of them were mares and two horses. Mr. Burton has put them on grass on his farm north of the city.

Mr. Geo. Reynolds, of Bourbon county, has purchased from C. R. Walls, of near Little Rock, the six-year-old saddle mare, Dolly Stamper 7344. She is by Crown Prince 2626, a grandson of Harrison Chief 1606. Her dam is a daughter of Ringo's King.

A well-known race horse owner said to a veterinary surgeon: "How is it you haven't called me on for your account?" "Oh," said the vet, "I never ask a gentleman for money." "Indeed! Then how'd you get on if he don't pay?" "Why, after a certain time I conclude he's not a gentleman, and then I ask him."

COL. TAYLOR PAYS RECORD PRICE FOR CATTLE.

The biggest deal in Hereford cattle ever made in the United States was closed Friday afternoon, when Col. E. H. Taylor, of Frankfort, paid to W. H. Curtice, of Shelby county, $20,000 for one two-year-old bull, Beau Perfection XXIV, eighteen cows, one yearling heifer and one calf. The price at which the bull was figured, $12,400 makes him the highest priced animal of his breed ever sold in America. In celebration of the event, Col. Milne, who is the manager of Col. Taylor's cattle department, gave a banquet to the Hereford cattle men of this country at Hollanbach's Friday night, at which eighteen were present. The cattle will be shipped to Col. Taylor's farm in Woodford county.

THEATRICAL.

At the Alamo To-night.

At the Alamo this afternoon and to-night will be presented the stirring film drama, "In the Line of Duty," a tense overpowering drama that just escapes tragedy by a happy twist—teeming with thrilling and unexpected situations. "In the Line of Duty" is a drama of military life in India, featuring the famous emotional actress, Rita Sacchetto, in motion pictures. This distinguished actress has scored a distinct triumph in this four-part production and demonstrates her versatility as an emotional actress, classical dancer and pantomimist. This is one of the best four-reel features to be seen on the Alamo's screen this season, and should be seen by everyone. (adv)

The Alamo Thursday.

For the matinee an evening of Thursday, June 4, the Alamo will present the sensational pictures of the great Mexican War, showing the genuine battles at Juarez, Mesa Tiera, Blanca and Ojinaga.

These pictures were made by Dr. Chas. A. Pryor, Associated Press reporter and motion picture expert. Dr. Pryor made pictures during all battles on both sides and at one time was arrested and placed in prison, sentenced to be shot and eventually released by Gen. Castro. These pictures show the following interesting features: 4,500 feet showing both the Federals and Rebels in action; close-up pictures of Gen. Vila and staff, the refugees fleeing for their lives across the Rio Grande, search and arrest by our soldier boys. Physicians and Red Cross Society doctoring the wounded, burying the dead, Uncle Sam feeding 5,000 Federal prisoners. Shows the many classes of people in this war-burdened country. Educational, instructive and entertaining to old and young. (adv)

The Columbia To-morrow.

The Columbia Theater presents as its chief feature to-morrow afternoon and evening a three-reel production of the famous Grimms' fairy tale, "Hansel & Gretel." This is a remarkably beautiful version of this famous story, full of heart throbs and spirited action. You will see the children's favorites, "Matty and Baby Early" in this beautiful fairy tale done in pictures. Renew your youth by seeing this delightful three-reel feature to-morrow afternoon or evening. (adv)

CHILDREN DAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"Children's Day" was appropriately observed Sunday, at the Presbyterian Church, by an interesting program under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Johnson and Superintendent Geo. R. Bell. The church was tastefully decorated and was filled with interested spectators. Miss Elizabeth Crutcher presided at the organ. The program was as follows:

Processional and motional exercises by primary children.

Welcome Address—Louise Dailey.

Song, "God is Love"—The Choir.

Recitation—"The Good of Nations."

Solo and Chorus, "For Children's Day"—Josephine Fithian.

Recitation, "Questions"—Four little boys.

Recitation—Jack Brennan and Ed. Meringer.

Recitation and Song, "Seed Baskets"—By boys.

Recitation—Jesse Turney.

Chorus—"Ye Are Little Showers."

Recitation, "Forget-Me-Nots"—Five little girls.

Recitation and Song, "Shall the World Be Made the Better"—Constance Hill and Donnie Cahill.

Recitation, "Ye Are My Friends"—Four little boys.

Recitation—Smile It Down—Rachel McClinton.

Solo, "Serving Jesus"—Marjorie Trisler.

"Sowing and Reaping"—Older girls.

Chorus—"Love Divine."

Recitation, "Show Your Love"—Mary Shive.

This was an appeal for an offering and met with a genuine response.

The children of the primary class contributed over $12 for a scholarship in the college at Yeng Cheng, China, the children's missionary society gave $10, and these sums were augmented by contributions from the other classes and from the congregation.

Annie Louise White, Irene Bramblett, Dannie Cahill, Preston White and James McClintock received the ordinance of baptism. The benediction was pronounced after a closing number by the choir.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF PARIS HIGH SCHOOL.

The commencement exercises of the Paris High School began this week with the baccalaureate sermon delivered Sunday evening at the Christian Church by Elder W. E. Ellis to the class of 1914, in the presence of a large audience. Monday evening the Juniors gave a reception to the Seniors at the school building, which was greatly enjoyed by those participating. The calendar for the remainder of the week is as follows:

Tuesday evening, Annual Concert at the Paris Grand, at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday, class day exercises at the auditorium.

Thursday evening, 8 o'clock, graduation exercises at the auditorium. Address to the class by Rev. Geo. H. Harris, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Presentation of diplomas by Dr. F. L. Lapsley, Secretary of the Board of Education.

The following have completed the course and will receive diplomas:

Miss Ruth Chambers, Mr. Wayne Cottingham, Mr. Eli Friedman, Miss Ruth Lair, Mr. Joseph Letcher, Miss Sarah Meglone, Mr. Edward Myall, Miss Malvina Sharon, Mr. Allen Smith, Mr. John Stuart, Miss Gertrude Turpin, Mr. Sello Wollstein and Mr. John Ardery.

ROEBERIES BECOMING VERY SERIOUS.

In nearly all of the large daily papers, as well as the country weeklies, printed in Kentucky can be found columns of reports of hold-ups, robberies, burglaries and other devilment which is beginning to cause much apprehension among the people. It is the general belief that this trouble is caused by the convicts recently liberated from the State prisons under the parole law.

In several instances guilty parties have been arrested, and in nearly every case the culprits prove to be recently liberated convicts. The new law known as the indeterminate sentence law, is likewise causing much trouble from the fact that the impression has become general that a convicted man can soon slip through the fingers of justice by "being good" for a short time. The new law is a complete farce.

The trouble in Central Kentucky counties has been caused mostly by negroes imported from the Southern States to work in the construction camps along the line of the Louisville & Nashville. These negroes are mostly from Alabama.

NEGRO BOY ARRESTED FOR HOUSEBREAKING.

Officers Judy and King arrested Dennis Leer, colored, Saturday, charged with housebreaking. Leer entered the home of Mr. Ed. Rule in White Addition during the temporary absence of the family, and after appropriating all of the loose change and a pair of trousers, secreted himself in a clothes press, where he was subsequently discovered by Mrs. Rule, and turned over to the officers. The home of Mr. John Barnett in the same neighborhood, was entered the day before and relieved of $4 in small change, and Leer is suspected of having had his fingers in that.

Leer was brought before Judge McMillan yesterday afternoon, and plead not guilty. His trial was set for trial this morning.

EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY FOR THE INVESTOR.

NOTES FROM THE TOBACCO PLANT BEDS.

No tobacco has yet been planted in Trimble County, Ky., except by machinery.

Davies County (Ky.) growers have been delayed in getting out their plants because of a lack of season.

Tennessee growers are also getting anxious for a good season, as most of the land has been prepared and plants are getting too large.

Mercer County (Ky.) farmers are only awaiting a season to transplant their tobacco. The plants are in a thrifty condition and plentiful.

Plants in Anderson County (Ky.) were never so plentiful as this year, and growers expect that nine-tenths of the acreage will be under cultivation at the close of May.

Although the ground is dry and no season is in sight, tobacco men have used the plant setter and thousands of acres were set in Montgomery County, Ky., in the past ten days.

Farmers of Harrison County, Ky., have been compelled to water their tobacco plant beds to keep them from firing. Should not relief come soon conditions may become serious.

Throughout all sections of the State a drought has prevailed in Kentucky and plants are getting too large as there has been no season, and, except in those sections where the plant setting machines have been used, very little tobacco has been set.

North Carolina growers have also experienced dry weather, which has prevented planting. A good per cent. of that which was watered and planted has died. Cut worms have been bad, owing to a cool spring. Some sections of this State report a scarcity of plants.

A big sale of tobacco setting machines is reported by local dealers as a result of the continued dry weather and the impatience of the tobacco growers who have plants ready but no season. If the dry weather continues much longer it is sure that a large acreage will be transplanted with machines. Plants are reported suffering in the beds and the growers have begun hauling water and watering them to keep them from perishing.

ONLY ONE ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY.

"I have tried various colic and diarrhoea remedies but the only one that has given me entire satisfaction and cured me when I was afflicted is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I recommend it to my friends at all times," writes S. N. Galloway, Stewart, S. C. For sale by all dealers.

REPUBLICANS AND PROGRESSIVES WON'T FUSE.

At a meeting of the Congressional Committee of the Progressive party of Kentucky at the office of Chairman W. S. Lawwill in Danville, they announced that the Progressives would not "fuse" with the Republican party in Kentucky. Most assuredly any Republican has a right to bolt the ticket and continue to bolt. If they can do nothing for themselves they can at least defeat the Republican nominees. That seems to be what they are fighting for, and the vast majority of the Progressives have sense enough to see the game are returning to their allegiance with the Republican party. As to the irreconcilables they are presumably lost forever and will make good Democratic recruits in the subsequently.

COUGHS AND COLDS WEAKEN

DON'T HUNT FOR SLIGHTS OR INSULTS.

The man is to be pitied who is always spying around for slights and insults, for in doing so he makes himself most miserable. He conjures up a bugaboo and insists said bugaboo has picked him out as his particular victim. Now, the basis of such a disposition is an inordinate amount of self-esteem. If he did not possess such a trait he would rise above a seeming slight. But no; he must insist on the other fellow being unhappy by being unhappy himself. He must feel a sting in order to sting the other man.

The better way the more Christian way, is to try to construe everything said or done from a friendly standpoint, and if that seems impossible to drop the matter by raising above it. That is the thoughtful, large minded way. If there is a slight, it disarms it and makes it seem pitiful; if the slight was not intended the resentment is unjust and mean. So, any way this matter is taken, it is a manly thing to let the slight sputter with the slighter, and thus save oneself from an insignificant and senseless intrusion. Let us imagine how we would remember such a slight up there in the land of eternal life.

SENT HIS CATCH TO A "CHIROPODIST."

Over in Taylorsville, Ky., a citizen who recently wrote a piece for the village paper told about a large fish having been caught in a creek and announced that it was to be sent to a "chirododist" to be mounted. In a second letter to the paper he apologizes by saying that he is no encyclopedist; that he guessed at a word and missed and furthermore he thought it the business of the proofreader to correct mistakes. In this instance the proofreader was no encyclopedia, either, and the compositor evidently was one of those conscientious printorial guys who follow copy, even when it blows out the window. Besides, it's all the average newspaper man can do to correct his own mistakes without revising the fish stories and the parts of speech of the rural correspondent. — Frankfort State Journal.

About the quickest and surest way to overcome the Mexicans would be to shut off their supply of American foods. A nation would find it a hard matter to conduct a successful war with its soldiers kept up on a diet of chili beans, tortillas and mescal.

GAME WARDEN'S RAID.

We are told that one of the game wardens captured six seines in Kentucky River last week. As they were on the Woodford side of the river the culprits will be tried at Versailles. We are also told that all the game wardens are preparing to make a simultaneous raid on all the streams in Kentucky in the near future.

LUDLOW LAGOON
OPENS TO BIG CROWDS.

At the Lagoon opening the crowds were delighted with the many new improvements and free attractions. At the Roof Garden a free Cabaret performance was given with the University Four, Elealine Bowman and Berliners' Orchestra heading the list. At the Club House the entertainment was furnished by the famous Alpine singers and Yodlers in native costume introducing folk song, quartets and choruses. Over fourteen hundred danced in the Lagoon Ball Room the Tango, Hesitation, One-Step and other late dances and the new theatre called the Human Laundry kept hundreds screaming with laughter. The Motordrome races started last Saturday, Decoration day, and every week many new acts will appear on both land and water.

INDIGESTION AND CONSTIPATION.

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. The department will distribute all reading matter forwarded.

MORE TEXT-BOOKS ADOPTED.

Froman's Civil Government at 50 cents and Ray's Mental Arithmetic at 20 cents, published by the American Book Company, of Cincinnati, and Nolan's Agriculture at 50 cents, published by Rowe & Peterson, of Chicago, were adopted Friday by the State text-book commission in session at Frankfort. The commission adjourned until a week from to-day.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS.

(Cincinnati Enquirer).

What has become of the old-fashioned woman who used to believe that she would have seven years of bad luck if she broke a looking glass.

Every man knows one fellow who hasn't any faults. And he doesn't have to go far to lay his hand on him, either.

If a man has a red nose, he has to wear it and let it go at that. But if a woman has a crimson cheek she can always wear a Beauty Veil.

The children were a whole lot more obedient in the old days when Father kept a paddle in the wood shed and Mother wasn't afraid to use her slipper.

Any married man with a family can tell you that the only time he ever gets any attention at home is when he is too sick to appreciate it.

The modest woman, who won't wear a silk skirt because it exposes one limb, will often wear a silhouet skirt and expose both of them.

Lots of men who are too wise to try to carry water in a sieve will argue with a woman.

The world will be growing better, but there are still too many booze-drinking legislators who talk temperance.

Lots of poor booboo who regard gambling as a crime will start in any day to get rich raising chickens.

When a man is using the telephone you can always tell when a woman is at the other end of the wire.

A snake charmer is usually a female who looks as though she took to snakes because her face would scare anything else.

Some day when we get things running right, there will be a law against carrying concealed hammers.

The Kansas State officials proudly announce that 80,000 quarts of joy juice were imported into Topeka and consumed last month. Who's afraid of Prohibition?

When you ask a man to do anything, and he says he'll think it over, that is a polite way to say he won't do it.

You get mad all over if you are quoted incorrectly once a year. But how would you like to be Shakespeare or Statistic?

The old-fashioned woman who was named Mary now has a daughter who was named after a Pullman car.

Cheer up! If you had money enough to buy everything you wanted you would have the dyspepsia so badly that all you could absorb would be toast and water.

The reason a woman is a woman is because she would rather pay $1.98 for an article and get a two-cent premium with it than pay $1.50 for the same article without the premium.

THE BETTER RULE.

"The better rule is that business knows no friendships and has no presumptions that any man is honest—that is when it is one's business to protect the interests of others.

"Let a man do what he will with his own, but when he takes a chair at a director's table, where the welfare of other men and other women, be they rich or poor, helpless widows or dependent orphans, prosperous business men, or what not—when responsibility of safeguarding such a trust as this confronts a man, should he not forget that George is a good fellow, and remember his own oath and make him prove that he is an honest fellow, and that the papers which he lays down for examination are neither forged nor fictitious?

"If the directors of the wrecked bank at Paris had done this there would have been a different story to tell.

"Further there were at least a few losers by this disaster which these directors should repay if it took every penny of their own to do so." —[Lexington Leader.]

BEQUEATH A BILLION

Demise of Vanderbilt and Others
Breaks the Record.

Astor Estate Paid Largest Inheritance Tax Since Enactment of Law
With the Sum of $3,150,000—
Many Rich Men Die.

New York.—With the death recently of George W. Vanderbilt, George Westinghouse and John L. Cadwalader, officials in the state comptroller's office in this city began a tabulation of the wealth left by the large number of prominent New York men who have died since January 1, 1913. It is estimated that the total amount of wealth passed on to the next generation by the death of these men is more than one billion dollars.

The state comptroller at Albany reports that for the year ending last September the total amount of revenue collected by the state from the inheritance tax was $12,724,236.86. The sum to be collected from estates not yet appraised is believed to be much larger.

Never before in the history of this country, it is said, have so many men of wealth and power died in such a short period. Included in the list are such names as J. Pierpont Morgan, Anthony N. Brady, Benjamin Altman, Charles E. Appleby, George A. Hearn, Henry M. Flagler and Isaac V. Brokaw.

The tax on the Brady estate, paid recently in advance on appraisal to get a discount on the regular percentage, was $2,584,000, which was on an estimated valuation of $75,000,000.

The Morgan estate has paid an advance tax of $2,500,000 on an estimated total valuation of $65,000,000, exclusive of works of art, which have been valued at more than $50,000,000. George W. Vanderbilt is supposed to have left $50,000,000. Attorneys for the estate are working on an estimate of the fortune to be made to the state comptroller.

The largest inheritance tax paid since the enactment of the law was that of $3,150,000 on the $87,000,000 estate of the late Col. John Jacob Astor. Previous to that the estate of John S. Kennedy, valued at $67,000,000, held the record.

Benjamin Altman, George A. Hearn, Isaac V. Brokaw and Isidor Straus, great merchants, are some of the men whose estates are being adjusted by the state comptroller. Mr. Altman left his art works, valued at $10,000,000, to the Metropolitan museum. His total estate is supposed to be worth $30,000,000.

Mr. Hearn, another noted art collector, left an estate of $10,000,000, besides a notable art collection. The estate of Isaac V. Brokaw is estimated at $5,000,000, and a valuation of $4,427,608 was placed on the estate of Isidor Straus. Henry Flagler left an estate of $6,000,000.

Other large estates settled in 1913 are those of D. O. Mills, who left about $10,000,000; Edwin Hawley, valued at $9,740,000, less debts of about $4,000,000, and James R. Keene, estimated at $20,000,000.

MILITANT IS KNOCKED OUT

Prison Commissioner of Scotland Punishes Woman Who Attacks Him.

Glasgow, Scotland.—Dr. James Devon, prison commissioner for Scotland, when attacked by an irate militant suffragette armed with a dog whip, took the law in his own hands and knocked his assailant down with a well-aimed left-hand blow. The woman, whose identity was not discovered, met the prison commissioner at the entrance to the Duke street prison and labored him over the head and shoulders with her whip. Dr. Devon, who is an advocate of forcible feeding and is bitterly opposed to what he considers the farcical release of suffragettes because they are suffering from the effects of "hunger strikes," promptly knocked her down. The woman was picked up by a policeman and placed under arrest, but Dr. Devon refused to prosecute her and she was released.

SHOCKING NEWS KILLS GIPSY

He Drops Dead When Told of Son-In-Law Attacking Chief With an Ax.

Paterson, N. J.—During a quarrel in a gypsy camp near here, Edward Harrison, a young gipsy, swung an ax at his chief, Thomas Buckland. Buckland thrust out his right arm to stop the blow and it was cut to the bone. Harrison scrambled up a high bank back of the camp and started running along the Morris canal towpath toward Paterson.

Patrick Hogan of the Little Falls police gave chase on horseback. Hogan tried to cross the ice and went through, and both he and the horse got a cold bath. Harrison escaped to the woods on Garrett mountain.

When Harrison's wife told her father, Peter Guy, what had happened, the old man dropped dead. He had been subject to heart trouble.

To Pay Big Income Tax.

Chicago.—The largest payment of income tax in Chicago was offered the internal revenue officials when a man, whose name the authorities withheld, sent word that he would pay a net tax of $42,516.68, the assessment on an annual income of $750,000.

CZAR DENIES BIG WAR RUMOR

Royal Head of Russia Sends Personal Letter to Kaiser Repudiating Press Reports.

Berlin.—A private letter from the czar of Russia to Emperor William was sent to Berlin in the care of a special courier. It dealt with the sensational articles circulating in the German press in regard to Russia's alleged preparations for an attack on Germany at the earliest possible moment.

A semi-official newspaper, which announces the dispatch of the czar's communication, also emphasizes the fact that the personal relations between the two monarchs continue to be most intimate. It is understood that Nicholas has taken occasion to assure William that the war alarms are entirely groundless, but the journals which represent the German military party place no faith in the official assurances that the Russian war scare is without foundation.

It is stated that the Russian ambassador in Berlin has been instructed to make inquiries whether the Cologne Gazette's article declaring that Russia purposes to attack Germany in 1917 was in any "respect inspired." The foreign office persists in denying any connection with the publication.

DUKE SEEKS LADY MANNERS

Abruzzi's Affections Now Said to Have Turned to the Young English Noblewoman.

London.—Has Lady Diana Manners succeeded Mrs. "Billy" Hitt in the affections of the duke of the Abruzzi? That is the report which comes from London. So the duke may not have been so very hard hit by the refusal of the fair Miss Elkins to become his morganatic wife. Lady Diana is the third daughter of the duke of Rutland and is twenty-two years old. She is accounted a beauty in England. Her sister is the marchioness of Anglesey.

BIG U. S. BATTLESHIP READY

Texas, Most Powerful in World, Goes Into Commission—Dreadnaught Leaves for Norfolk Navy Yard.

Newport News, Va.—All ready for "fight or frolic," the giant superdreadnaught Texas most powerful battleship afloat in the world, left the yards of her builders here, the Newport News Shipbuilding company, for the Norfolk navy yard, there to be turned over to Rear Admiral Usher, commanding of the Norfolk station.

This monster of the sea carries as its principal fighting equipment a battery of ten 14-inch guns, being the first warship in the world to be fitted out with guns of such large caliber. In addition it has in its main battery 21 five-inch guns.

In length the fighter is 573 feet, with a beam 95 feet 2 1/2 inches, so that in passing through the Panama canal locks she would have almost 15 feet to spare. Although her designed speed was 21 knots, in her trials off the Maine coast last October she did her fastest mile in 22.28 knots. She has a displacement of 27,000 tons, a horsepower of 35,000 and draws 28 feet 6 inches. Her armor belt is 11 inches thick.

U. S. MADE IRISH CITY GROW

Before American War It Was Only a Small Fishing Village—Is Fine Watering Place.

London.—Queenstown, which is being abandoned as a port of call by the big Cunarders, owed its first prosperity to American shipping. Before the American war, when it was used as an embarking point for troops, it was only a small fishing village, but after that it increased rapidly.

In those days its name was Cove of Cork, and it was not until 1849, when it was Queen Victoria's first landing place in Ireland, that it took its present title. Queenstown now thrives as a watering-place as well as a port and claims to have a climate more equable than any part of England or France. Its Royal Cork Yacht club is the oldest yacht club in the United Kingdom.

NEWS OF MILLERSBURG

—Mrs. E. H. Kerr returned Saturday after a week's visit to her mother, Mrs. Martha Baldwin, at Maysville.

—Mrs. J. A. Miller was called to the bedside of her brother, Mr. Chas. Best, of Lagrange, on account of his critical illness.

—Regular meeting of Amity Lodge to-night. There will probably be work in the third degree. All members are urged to be present.

—Mrs. M. D. Hurst left Friday for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. R. H. Hudson, of Ewing.

—Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Deans and little son, Ross, returned Thursday from Florida, where they spent the winter.

—Mrs. J. C. Head and little daughter, Katherine, left Monday for a month's visit to relatives at Bradfordsville.

—Mr. J. B. Vimont left Monday for Crab Orchard Springs, where he has accepted a position as Clerk during the watering season. Mr. Allen Ingles will leave July 1, for the same place, and will be in charge of the soft drink department.

—Postmaster J. B. Cray received an official letter Saturday from the Postoffice Department at Washington, informing him that the Millersburg postoffice had been raised to a third class office, and beginning with July 1, his salary would be raised from $1,000 to 1,500 a year.

The remains of Mr. B. A. Neal, who died at his home on Wednesday, at 1 p.m., were laid to rest in the Millersburg Cemetery, Friday morning, after a short service at his home, by his pastor, Rev. A. S. Venable, the Masonic service at the grave which was conducted by Past Grand Master, S. K. Veach, of Carlisle. The floral tributes were beautiful. Among the out of town friends present were: Mr. E. M. Neal, Pewee Valley; Mr. Claude Neal and family, of Newport; Mr. J. K. Allen and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Allen, Mr. Dwight Bowden and sisters, Misses Nannie and Ruth Bowden, of Winchester.

—The little folks of the Presbyterians Church gave a Tom Thumb weddin' dinner yesterday evening, at the opera house, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Master James Collier, the little son of Mrs. W. E. Collier, was the bridegroom, while pretty little Miss Sarah Louise McIntyre, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McIntyre, was the bride.

The guests were ushered to their places by Master Edmund Martin, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin, who did his work with perfect composure, the cousins, uncles, aunts, parents and grandparents, bachelors and old maids, etc., constituted the wedding party. Some of the features of real life were carried out. Master Edgar Hurst and Miss Imogene McWhorter, who were grandparents of the groom, captivated all present with several duets.

—Millersburg was again visited by burglars on Thursday and Friday nights. However, nothing was secured by them. On Thursday night they attempted to enter the home of Mr. M. A. Pruitt, the grocery of Jones Bros. and the drug store of Waddell Pruitt home by the cries of Mrs. Pruitt, from the drug store by the young ladies in the Cumberland Telephone exchange. The rear door of the grocery of Jones Bros. was not only locked, but was secured also by a heavy iron bar. On Friday night they were seen in the back yard of Misses Mattie and Sallie McIntyre, also in the rear of the home of Mr. T. D. Judy and Mrs. Russell Powell at their home. On Thursday night when they visited the town the neighbors were aroused and some 15 or 20 shots were fired. Quite a number of people guarded their own property Saturday night.

—The commencement exercises of the M. M. I. opened Saturday morning at 10:30 with the baccalaureate sermon at the Methodist church by Elder Mark Collis, of the Broadway Christian Church of Lexington. A large audience was in attendance, the musical program was good. The speaker of the hour was introduced at the appointed time, in a most appropriate way by Rev. J. D. Redd, pastor of the church, who said in his opening remarks that the intimate relationship as pastor between he and Dr. Collis was so close that at times he forgot whether Dr. Collis was a Methodist and he himself Christian. Dr. Collis took for subject, "Duty." His sermon was not long and he confined his subject almost entirely to the class of 1914, and the student body of the institution. His sermon was of such a character as to cause all of the student body to think. He gave the graduation class beautiful examples to carry away with them and pointed out to them the possibilities in life that were open to them. It was a sermon that pleased all present. Dr. Collis is no stranger in Millersburg, as he has held two protracted meetings here in the past 20 years and most of the large congregation knew that they would not be disappointed. In the evening there were union services in the Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. A. S. Venable, of the Presbyterian Church, as it was impossible for Dr. Collis to remain over. The following is a partial list of the commencement guests: Miss Alma Nutter, of Georgetown, with Mrs. J. P. Auxier; Mr. J. S. Lake, little son and daughter, of Cynthiana, with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ammerman; Mrs. William Bedford and son James, with Mr. M. P. Collier and family; Miss Russell Caldwell, of Mayslick, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caldwell; Miss Gladys Marcum, of Paris with her sister, Mrs. Reynolds Letton; Mr. Clyde Richards, of Paris, with Mr. H. C. Current; Lydia Wilmore, of Lancaster, and Mrs. Harmon Stitt, of Paris, at M. M. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Harkett Switzer and little son, of Cynthiana, with Mrs. Margaret Powell and family; Mrs. Robert Wilson, of California, Ky., with her mother, Mrs. Amanda Martin.

—The commencement exercises at M. M. I. were continued Monday at 9 a.m., with the annual drill on the college campus. Owing to the inclement weather, threatened rain, the crowd was not up to the average, but notwithstanding this the crowd was large. The drill was compared favorably with those of former years. The judges were Cadets Gentry, J. Miller, and H. Miller, of Lexington.

ington. The drill in the manual at arms for the medal was won by Cadet Shield, of Nicholasville. Company A. was awarded the flag again for another year, this being three consecutive years Company A. has carried it. Everything was favorable for Company B. until the firing began, as they did bad work in this line. A complete list of visitors in our next issue.

—A double-header game was played on the M. M. I. grounds yesterday afternoon, the first between M. M. I. and Cynthiana High School, resulting in a score of 9 to 1 in the seventh inning in favor of M. M. I. The second game between M. M. I. second team and the Old Cadets was called off in the fifth inning on account of rain the score being 5 to 5.

AND THE NEXT DAY IT RAINED AND RAINED.

The drouth which has prevailed in this section, accompanied by a superabundance of humidity and heat for several weeks was partly relieved yesterday by showers. The rainfall was neither "copious" nor "profuse," but sufficiently aqueous to let us know there was something doing. Heavy rains are needed to relieve the parched crops of all kinds. Old timers say this has been an unusual state of weather conditions for May.

It is a large company, and offers a good opportunity for inventive genius. Mr. Hayden will come to Paris for a visit to his parents before assuming his duties.

BOURBON COUNTY FIRM BUYS BIG WOOL CROP.

It is stated on authority from Cynthiana that Lynch & Wiggins, of Hutchison, have bought the pooled wool clip of the Harrison County Grangers. The deal was for 4,000 fleeces, or 24,000 pounds, and the price was two cents a pound above that paid to individuals on account of the crop being pooled.

—The commencement exercises at M. M. I. were continued Monday at 9 a.m., with the annual drill on the college campus. Owing to the inclement weather, threatened rain, the crowd was not up to the average, but notwithstanding this the crowd was large. The drill was compared favorably with those of former years. SECRETARY WILSON TRYING TO GET MEN FOR WORK IN FIELDS.

Acting on information of Charles L. Dougherty, labor commissioner of Oklahoma, that from 12,000 to 15,000 men would be required to help harvest and thresh the wheat crop in that State, Secretary Wilson ordered bulletins placed in postoffices throughout the country, describing Oklahoma's needs. Inquiry has been made of State officials in Kansas, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri and Minnesota, about their requirements for extra help during the harvest time. Commissioner Dougherty stated in a telegram to Secretary Wilson that wages in Oklahoma would be from $2 to $2.50 a day with board, and that of the 12,000 or 15,000 men required for the wheat harvest 85 per cent. would find additional employment handling the forage crops, promising four to six months steady work.

MR. BUCKLEY BUYS WOODFORD COUNTY FARM.

Clyde Buckley, prominent Lexington tobacco merchant, and son of Mr. Ben F. Buckley, of Bourbon County, has purchased of Dr. Risque, of Midway, the Turner farm of 398 acres on the Versailles and Nicholasville pike. The purchase price was not given out, but it is known to be a good one, as the farm is in a high state of cultivation and is one of the best agricultural tracts of land in the Blue Grass.

REAL ESTATE DEALS IN CITY AND COUNTY.

Cll. E. F. Clay, owner of Runnymede Farm, on the Cynthiana pike, recently purchased 60 acres of unimproved land, known as the Garrett farm, and located on the waters of Stoner Creek. The land which adjoins Col. Clay's farm, was bought from W. F. Turner and others, at a private figure.

Captain George W. Wilder sold last week to Wm. B. Cox, a vacant building lot on Vine street. The price was not made public, but it is known to be at a neat profit on the price paid by Captain Wilder about two weeks ago. Mr. Cox intends to improve the property with a modern frame residence.
